A Media-Based Conference Solution

Value is generated when creativity turns into ideas, and ideas turn into success. The friendlyway imagine 32 is designed to foster exactly this process: value generation.

friendlyway's media-based conferencing solution supports all your presentations, video conferences, think tanks, brainstorming sessions, and other forms of team-oriented face-to-face communication.

The kiosk's elegant recessed glass top is touch sensitive and provides users with fingertip control over presentations and applications.

Out of sight, the table also houses a high-performance multimedia computer. This will cope effortlessly with even the most sophisticated media presentations. The friendlyway imagine 32 is one investment that you will never regret—an innovation to foster innovation.
